

The Partnership for Peace (PfP) Programme

*A Mechanism for International Military Cooperation
Christian Bühlmann*

Any opinion or evaluation expressed in this presentation by the author does not represent the official position of Switzerland or the GCSP.

1 Introduction

NATO, Neutrality

2 PfP and Neutral States

Added Values and Topics

3 Discussion

PfP embodies Chinese Values

4 Conclusion

A reference, not a model

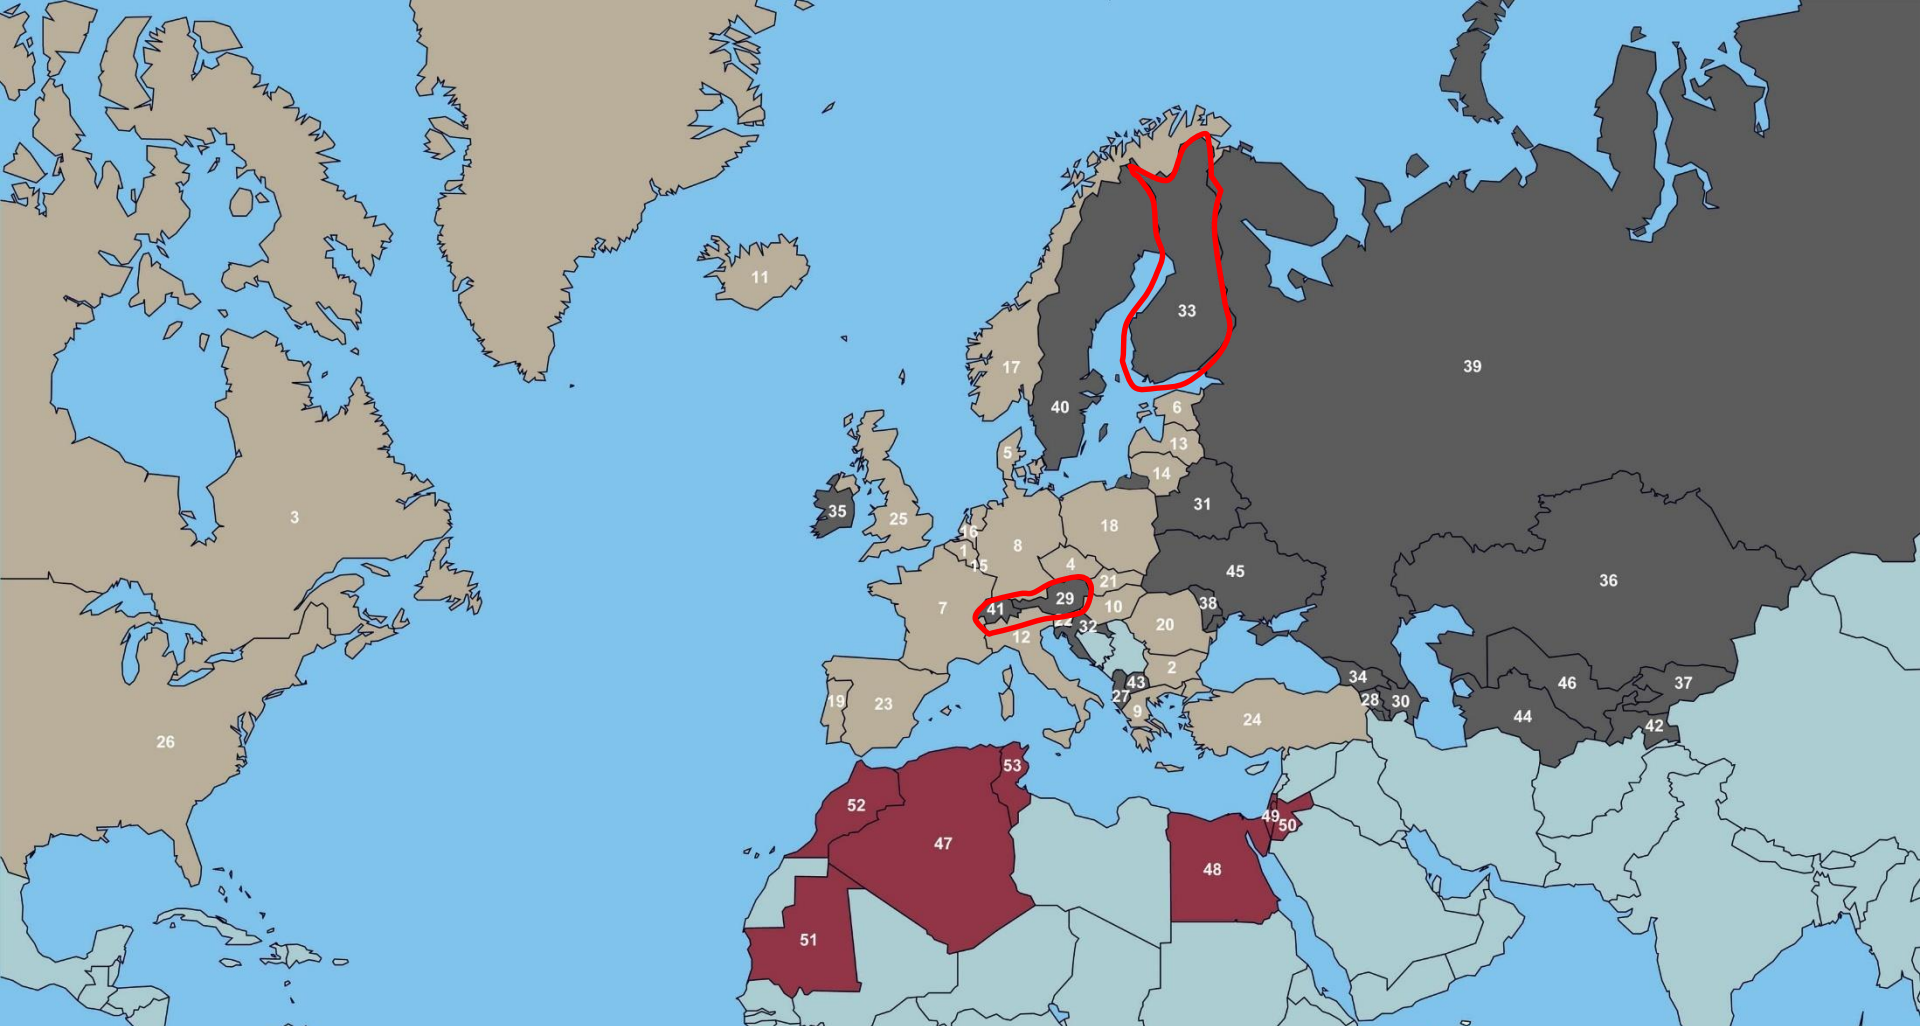

NATO still Important

PfP – Success, also for European Neutrals

Successful Mechanism
for International
Military Cooperation

Member countries

Partner countries

Mediterranean Dialogue countries

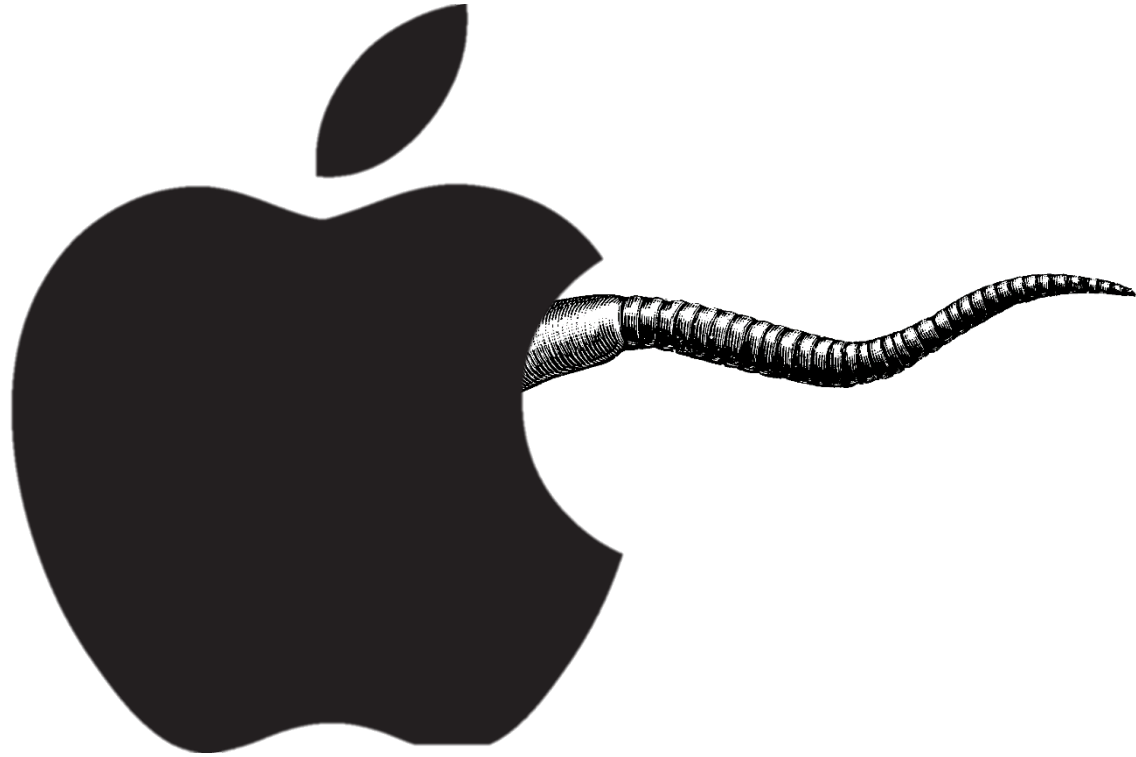

SWISS CAMP

NEUTRAL NATIONS
SUPERVISORY COMMISSION

1 Introduction
NATO, Neutrality

2 PfP and Neutral States
Added Values and Topics

3 Discussion
PfP embodies Chinese Values

4 Conclusion
A reference, not a model

Partnership for Peace programme

Crisis Management and Cooperative Security

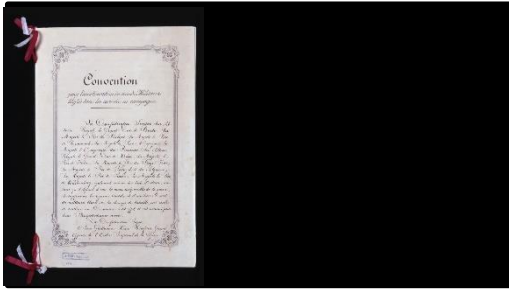

Consultation with Major Players

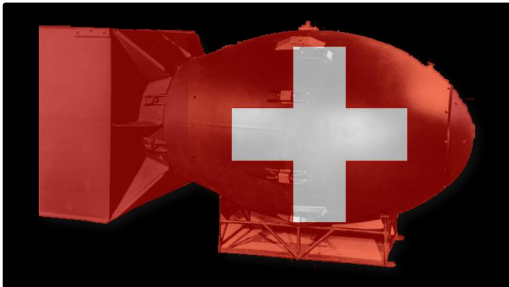

Developing the Partnership

Courses and Exercises

Human Security and Humanitarian Law

Non-proliferation and Cyberdefence

1 Introduction
NATO, Neutrality

2 PfP and Neutral States
Added Values and Topics

3 Discussion
PfP embodies Chinese Values

4 Conclusion
A reference, not a model

Justice

“The principle of justice stresses mutual respect in international relations, equality for all countries regardless of their sizes, and shared wellbeing for the whole world” (Zhao 2015).

Family / country community

People orientation

Harmony without uniformity

1 Introduction
NATO, Neutrality

2 PfP and Neutral States
Added Values and Topics

3 Discussion
PfP embodies Chinese Values

4 Conclusion
A reference, not a model

NATO still Important

PfP – Success, also for
European Neutrals

Successful Mechanism
for International
Military Cooperation

