Rapport de politique de sécurité

1973

- la diplomatie ... fournit la contribution de la Suisse à la solution pacifique des conflits;
- l'armée constitue l'instrument dont l'Etat dispose pour faire obstacle à la guerre; en cas de conflit, elle livre le combat défensif;
- la protection civile, l'économie de guerre, l'information et la protection de l'Etat rendent la résistance possible et assurent la protection de la population ;

We facilitate

Convening dialogue to reduce tensions and help resolve conflict.

Diplomatic Dialogue – three focus areas

GLOBAL SECURITY

We support Track 1 actors' efforts to rebuild trust and confidence among the key powers.

- Chambesy roundtable on European security
- Track 1.5 and 2 support for diplomatic processes
- Support for Switzerland's role as a non-permanent member of the UN Security Council

REGIONAL SECURITY

We facilitate open and informal exchanges among countries with shared regional crises or common dilemmas.

- Efforts to reduce tensions in North Asia (the Zermatt roundtable)
- Building confidence in the Eastern Mediterranean region
- Supporting peace processes and Geneva-based negotiation frameworks, inter alia related to Syria.

THEMATIC AND CUTTING-EDGE ISSUES:

We devise common approaches or principles to deal with emerging or cutting-edge security and governance issues.

- Facilitating policy-relevant dialogue among experts to analyse emerging challenges, and manage risks
- Facilitating dialogue on global governance related to Geneva-based institutions and processes

The Geneva Security Debates

Current Research and Policy Advice

POLYMATH INITIATIVE

Addresses the “silo thinking” which can lead to policy and governance failures when anticipating the consequences of emerging technologies.

GENEVA PROCESS ON AI PRINCIPLES

Explores and clarifies the meaning, operationalization and legal implications of new policies on the use of military artificial intelligence (AI).

INPUT FOR THE NEW SWISS MENA STRATEGY

Identifies trends and develops policy options for a new foreign policy strategy on the Middle East and North Africa (MENA).

Platform for innovation

Global Fellowship Initiative

- Multidisciplinary, multicultural and multigenerational network of leaders, experts and practitioners from a variety of backgrounds
- Created to overcome siloed approaches to learning and to act as an incubator for talent, innovation and creativity with the aim of advancing global peace and security through co-creation

Success Stories

Itonde Kakoma (EiR), former Director for Global Strategy at CMI, was appointed Head of Delegation and Permanent Representative to the African Union of the International Federation of the Red Cross and Red Crescent Societies (IFRC) on 1 May 2021.

After applying for Asylum in Switzerland in 2018, Adiba Qasim (YL) was finally granted the refugee status last August. Thanks to the GCSP, she is in the midst of her IR studies (with the financial support of Rotary) in order to be a strong advocate for Yezidi women and children.

Guy Rhodes (EiR) signed a contract with UNDP to provide services as a Chief Technical Advisor to Azerbaijan concerning landmine clearance in the Nagorno Karabakh region.
